2020 Course Guide

BRISBANE AUSTRALIA

'I applied to three universities in Australia to complete my Bachelor of Business degree. However, my English language score was not enough to enter directly to university. I selected to study at QUT as I got offered a great pathway option where I could do a Diploma + Bachelor degree in just three years. In the end, studying at QUT International College with other international students helped me to develop my confidence to speak English. The class sizes in the Diploma program were smaller so I could learn things faster and meet more people. It was also a great program to adjust to the Australian university studies and expectations. I met lots of people at the college and I continue being friends with them now, even if we are not in the same city.'

Clubs and societies are the heart of QUT's student culture, as they offer you an opportunity to make your time studying at university memorable and fun. There are over 130 different clubs and societies to join. All QUTIC students are able to join any club or society in the categories of faculties, sports, cultural, special interests, religion and social justice.

Student Expos

QUTIC organises several expos throughout the year, including faculty expos where our students get to meet staff from the different university faculties and have any questions answered. We also have a cultural expo where students get to showcase their home country, and a student services expo where all the relevant services, such as student clubs and accommodation services are showcased. You can also attend all QUT expos, including career fairs.

Student Support

We know that moving to a new country can be challenging so while you study at QUTIC you will receive a range of additional academic and personal support to help up adjust to studying in English and living in Brisbane.

Language and learning support

Learning, language and study skills

Our language and learning team will provide you with additional support for your ongoing language and academic literacy needs outside the classroom. They provide one-to-one consultations, drop-in sessions and workshops around important topics, such as creating reference lists, in-text citations, effective paraphrasing, writing with accuracy, and perfecting your pronunciation and presentation skills. This extra support means you will be better prepared to achieve academic success at QUT.

Welfare Advisors

Wellbeing, counselling, finances and career

Our dedicated Welfare Advisors are here to help. They provide valuable information and advice, such as time management, health and safety, writing a resume and budgeting as a student, to help you make the most of your experience studying and living in Brisbane. They also provide confidential one-to-one counselling and support if you need to talk to someone about your study, finances or personal problems.

Health Support

Health appointments

QUTIC students can access QUT health services, including an optometry clinic, podiatry clinic, disability advisers, a nutrition and dietetics clinic and more. If you need to see a doctor or nurse, QUT Medical Centres provide quality health and medical services on both QUT campuses. QUTIC students will be billed directly to their Medibank Private and Global Allianz OSHC.

YOU WILL BE BETTER PREPARED TO ACHIEVE ACADEMIC SUCCESS AT QUT

Religious Support

Multi-faith Chaplaincy

Our chaplains support your emotional and spiritual needs. They welcome students from all backgrounds, regardless of religious beliefs. Multi-faith Chaplaincy can provide you with spiritual support, connections with others and multicultural opportunities. In the centres at Gardens Point and Kelvin Grove, you can make yourself tea and coffee, take a break from the rest of campus, engage in quiet reflection, meditation, prayer or worship and talk to a chaplain if you wish.

Muslim prayer rooms are available for prayer and services at the Gardens Point and Kelvin Grove campuses.

Accommodation

QUT offers a wide range of accommodation options, including student residential complexes, homestay, residential colleges and private rentals.

QUT accommodation service provides you with information and advice on finding safe and secure accommodation within Brisbane city. They can also provide assistance if you have any problems with your chosen accommodation option. We recommend that you arrive a few weeks before semester starts so that you have time to find accommodation, adjust to life in Brisbane, and attend QUTIC orientation.

Under 18 Supervision Program

If you're under 18 years of age, the Department of Home Affairs (DHA) of Australia requires you to have appropriate accommodation, support and welfare arrangements in place before starting your studies at QUT. QUT offers a supervision program, coordinated by International Student Services (ISS), which meets the requirements of DHA by providing comprehensive support and monitoring of your welfare until you turn 18.

To meet the visa requirements, you will either need to:

- be placed in a QUT approved homestay until you turn 18
- live with a parent, guardian or suitable relative who is eligible to be nominated as a carer until you turn 18.

Homestay

- food
- furnished bedroom (bed, wardrobe, desk, chair) and access to all shared areas of the home

All student apartment complexes are well-located close to QUT's two campuses. Renting a room usually costs from $180 to $500 a week (cheapest being a twin share). You can also rent a real-estate agent managed student accommodation, or organise your own private rental by looking online. For these rent is usually between $150 and $300 a week.
