

Acceptance Form for International Students

This brochure explains the offer letter you have received and what you need to do next. It is important that you understand the letter and your responsibilities before you accept the offer.

If you have any queries regarding the offer letter, please contact ECU Admissions for assistance

Congratulations on receiving an offer to study at ECU. In order to accept this offer, please read the instructions in this brochure and follow them carefully.

1. Letter of Offer

The Letter of Offer you have already received outlines the course you have been offered, the usual course duration, the year and semester you will be commencing your studies, the campus where the course is offered, the Orientation date, and any conditions of entry.

This letter contains important links to further information about your course, studying at ECU, Overseas Health Cover (OSHC), and living in Western Australia. It also gives you the link to the Department of Immigration website, where you can find out how to obtain your student visa, www.immi.gov.au/students

It also outlines the fees you have to pay in order to accept your offer. It can take time to obtain a student visa, so we advise you to accept the offer early to allow yourself sufficient time to obtain your visa.

2. Accepting your offer

If you would like to accept this offer to study at ECU, you must follow the following:

- A. Complete this Acceptance Form.
- B. Read the Conditions, Authorisations and Declarations to confirm your acceptance.
- C. Please pay the tuition fees and the Overseas Student Health cover as outlined in your letter.

3. How to pay

Payment can be made in your preferred currency from overseas via bank transfer or credit card. Log in via the secure ECU Western Union website www.pay24-7.com/ecu.

For more alternate payment methods please visit our “How to Pay” website, www.ecu.edu.au/future-students/student-central/how-to-pay-your-fees

Upon receipt of your payment, we will issue your Confirmation of Enrolment (COE). Your Acceptance Letter will also be issued to you if you have received an Unconditional Offer.

4. If your offer is ‘conditional’

You must submit your supporting certified documents (Academic or English results) to meet the Conditions identified in your offer letter.

Please note that if you have received a “Conditional Offer” you must satisfy these “Conditions” before you can be admitted to ECU and before you may receive a Conditional Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE).

5. Confirmation of Enrolment

Your Confirmation of Enrolment (COE) is the document you require to obtain your student visa. It contains information about the course you will be enrolled in, the course duration and the indicative course fee payable. It is your responsibility to ensure that the information on the COE is correct before you submit it to obtain your visa.

6. Relocating

For all other information relating to your relocation, please see the ECU website on Relocation for international students www.ecu.edu.au/new-students/relocating-and-international-students this page will give you information on:

- when to arrive in Perth
- accommodation
- important visa information
- organising finance
- medical needs
- orientation
- buddy programs
- and much more

7. Employment/Professional Recognition of ECU Courses

It is your responsibility when deciding to apply/enrol in a particular ECU course that you have satisfied for yourself that the course is likely to meet your expectations, as well as any professional registration and employment objectives, in Australia and overseas.

8. Course Information

Visit www.ecu.edu.au/future-students/international for full information about your course.

9. Your Consumer Rights

This agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

Conditions

I understand and accept the offer for the above named ECU course on the following conditions:

1. Until I am enrolled in the ECU course I am not a student of ECU and I do not have the rights or obligations of an ECU student;
2. I must comply with ECU's legislation and policies to attain and retain my enrolment with ECU (http://policysearch.ecu.edu.au/WebDrawer.PolicySearch/Record?q=recTypedTitle%3A%22*%22&sortBy=recTypedTitle);
3. My enrolment may be deferred, suspended or cancelled in accordance with the Admission, Enrolment and Academic Progress Rules (http://policysearch.ecu.edu.au/WebDrawer.PolicySearch/Record?q=recTypedTitle%3A%22*%22&sortBy=recTypedTitle);
4. I am not subject to any sanctions which may preclude my enrolment and attendance at ECU (<http://dfat.gov.au/international-relations/security/sanctions/pages/consolidated-list.aspx>);
5. ECU may rescind my offer or terminate my enrolment if incorrect or incomplete information about me is provided to ECU;
6. ECU may, at its discretion and for any reason, modify or not deliver any course prior to the commencement of the course;
7. ECU's course tuition fees are set and published annually, which do not include additional charges required for compulsory health insurance, on-campus parking and other services;
8. I understand that I may be required to provide the original documents of the scanned copies that I submitted with my application. If I am unable to provide original documents, or these documents are found to be fraudulent in any way, my enrolment may be cancelled.
9. ECU's tuition fees are payable in advance and on a semester basis with refunds available in accordance with its International Student Tuition Fee Refund Policy (http://ecu.edu.au/GPPS/policies_db/policies_view.php?rec_id=0000000323) in addition to any right provided by Australia's consumer protection laws; and
10. This offer and my acceptance of it and any agreement with ECU and me are governed by the laws of Western Australia and Australia.

Authorisations

I authorise ECU to:

1. Use the information provided by me in accordance with the principles of Australia's privacy laws;
2. Disclose any information I provide that is incorrect, untrue or incomplete, and the fact that it is incorrect, untrue or incomplete, to any authority that ECU considers it necessary to inform;
3. Disclose information about any change of course or breach of student visa to the Australian Government and designated authorities and, if relevant, the Tuition Protection Service.
4. Release my academic enrolment details and results to ECC or my visa sponsor (if any);
5. Disclose information provided by me to Australian Commonwealth and State agencies upon request;
6. Disclose information provided by me to an ECU authorised representative, ECC and the overseas student health cover provider for administrative purposes;
7. Obtain relevant information about payment of my tuition fees from any applicable funding body, lender or other agency or person; and
8. If necessary, verify all details provided by me in this form, including my education qualifications.

Declarations

I sincerely declare:

1. The information provided by me in this form is complete and correct;
2. I am a "Genuine Temporary Entrant" and a "Genuine Student" as defined by the Department of Home Affairs and confirm that studying the ECU course, for which I am accepting my offer, is my primary purpose for coming to Australia;
3. I understand the obligations of an Australian student visa holder including the requirement for overseas student health cover;
4. I understand that I have an obligation to notify the ECU of a change of address while enrolled in the course.
5. I will undertake an enrolment load that will enable the completion of the ECU course as specified in my confirmation of enrolment where a normal full-time study load is 60 credit points per semester and there are no circumstances of which I am presently aware which may impact upon this;
6. If applicable, I have read and understood the information provided on schooling of dependent children and I will provide ECU with the details of any dependents travelling to and remaining in Western Australia for the duration of my study (<http://www.ecu.edu.au/new-students/relocatingand-international-students/6-weeks-before-you-arrive/can-you-help-me-arrange-schooling-for-my-children-while-i-study-in-australia>);
7. I understand this agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove my right to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

For information about your rights and responsibilities while studying in Australia read the factsheet available at the Department of Education and Training website (<https://docs.education.gov.au/documents/international-student-fact-sheet>) also see a description of the ESOS framework made available electronically by the Department of Education and Training (<https://internationaleducation.gov.au/regulatory-information/pages/regulatoryinformation.aspx>).
